Art Gallery of Hamilton offers half-price admission in recognition of *Hamilton Celebrates

To cap off the month-long Hamilton Celebrates event, the Art Gallery of Hamilton is pleased to offer half-price admission to its Heaven and Earth Unveiled: European Treasures from the Tanenbaum Collection exhibition, Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30 from noon to 5 pm.

The renowned Heaven and Earth Unveiled exhibition features over 200 nineteenth-century European paintings and sculptures generously donated to the AGH by Joey and Toby Tanenbaum. While at the Gallery, guests are encouraged to take in the AGH's The Feast: Food in Art exhibition featuring historical and contemporary art with food as its subject matter. All exhibitions located on Gallery Level One of the AGH, including The Feast exhibition, are free courtesy of Orlick Industries.

Admission for this special two-day Hamilton Celebrates promotion is $6.00 for adults, $5.00 for students and seniors, $2.50 for children aged 6 to 17 years and free for children under 5 years. Admission for a family of 2 adults and up to 4 children is $15.00.

The AGH is proud to participate in Hamilton Celebrates – an initiative that celebrates the people, diversity and spirit of Hamilton. Hamilton attractions are encouraged to offer discounted admission on the last weekend of October as part of the Hamilton Celebrates initiative.

The Art Gallery of Hamilton is located at 123 King Street West in downtown Hamilton, 905-527-6610. For all AGH exhibition and programming information, please visit www.artgalleryofhamilton.com
