Blurring the line between fashion and art
Art Gallery of Hamilton presents RUNWAY: Live at the AGH
featuring the creations of Canadian couturier Richard Robinson

The designs of Canadian couturier Richard Robinson come to life in the gala fashion show RUNWAY: Live at the AGH on Thursday, September 20th at 7:00 pm presented at the Art Gallery of Hamilton, 123 King Street West, Hamilton.

Paris-trained, Ottawa-based designer Mr. Robinson has dressed for an elite international clientele in the entertainment, political and design worlds. Inspired by fantasy and the future, his designs stretch the imagination and blur the line between fashion and art. Mr. Robinson has a showroom in Los Angeles in addition to his studio in Ottawa where he is also leader of the Richard Robinson Academy of Fashion Design. Mr. Robinson will be in attendance at the fashion show.

RUNWAY: Live at the AGH is sponsored by Stitch-It, Dofasco and Arcelor Mittal.

This fashion show also celebrates the launch of the AGH's Fall exhibition RUNWAY: Contemporary Fashion by Richard Robinson on view from September 22, 2007 to February 3, 2008, an exhibition that places a Canadian designer in the cultural spotlight.

Tickets are $50.00 each and include a pre-show reception and a special exhibition preview of RUNWAY: Contemporary Fashion by Richard Robinson. Tickets are available online at www.artgalleryofhamilton.com or by calling 905-527-6610, ext. 248.
