Art Gallery of Hamilton presents an Afternoon Tea and Curator's Talk

Join us for an Afternoon Tea and Curator's Talk exploring the current Art Gallery of Hamilton exhibition Two Artists Time Forgot: Frances Jones (Bannerman) and Margaret Campbell Macpherson on Tuesday, January 29th at 2:00 pm at the Art Gallery of Hamilton.

Special guest speaker will be Diane O'Neill, Associate Curator, Historical Prints and Drawings from the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia. Ms. O'Neill will offer an insightful talk about these two important artists, placing them in a historical context and sharing her vision in creating this exhibition.

Tickets are $10.00 for AGH Members and $15.00 for Non-Members. Pre-registration is recommended. Attendance can be reserved by calling 905-527-6610, ext. 272.

Two women. Two artists. Two painting careers lost to us through time and art historical neglect. The exhibition Two Artists Time Forgot offers a rare opportunity to experience firsthand the work of Newfoundland's Margaret Campbell Macpherson (1860 - 1931) and Nova Scotia's Frances Jones (Bannerman) (1855 - 1944). As the first in-depth study of these artists, the exhibition seeks to introduce their works to a wider audience while providing the opportunity of experiencing a selection of over sixty paintings on loan from private and public collections. Two Artists Time Forgot is organized by the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia and The Rooms, Provincial Art Gallery of Newfoundland and Labrador, and circulated by the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia with the support of the Museums Assistance Program (MAP), Department of Canadian Heritage. Co-curated by Dr. Dianne O'Neil and Caroline Stone

Art Gallery of Hamilton is located at 123 King Street West, downtown Hamilton.
