

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE April 14, 2005

Announcing a new series at the Art Gallery of Hamilton about the art of collecting art.

The Art of the Chase: AGH Collectors Series

Beginning Wednesday, June 1st, prominent private collectors and those involved in the art of the deal will share their enthusiasm for the acquisition of cherished artworks in The Art of the Chase: Art Gallery of Hamilton Collectors Series. Held in the newly renovated Art Gallery of Hamilton, these four stimulating evenings of conversation and storytelling will appeal to active and future art collectors.

Mr. Joey Tanenbaum, one of Canada's most significant art collectors and donor of the more than 200 paintings and sculptures that make up the AGH's re-opening exhibition Heaven and Earth Unveiled: European Treasures from the Tanenbaum Collection, will deliver the keynote address on June 1st.

Also joining the series as guest speaker will be Mr. David Silcox, President, Sotheby's Canada. In addition to successful careers in government, education and the arts, Mr. Silcox is the author of several books including Painting Place, The Life and Work of David B. Milne (1996) and The Group of Seven and Tom Thomson (2003).

The series schedule is as follows:

Wednesday, June 1 – 7:00 pm	Keynote Address: Private Collecting Mr. Joey Tanenbaum
Wednesday, June 8 – 7:00 pm	Inside Perspectives from Leading Experts in the Field
Monday, June 13 – 7:00 pm	Collectors and the Auction House Mr. David Silcox, President of Sotheby's
Thursday, June 23 – 7:00 pm	Private Collecting

Cost of The Art of the Chase: AGH Collectors Series is $90.00 for AGH Members and $100.00 for non-Members. Dinner catered by 1010 Bistro is available at an additional cost.

Media Sponsor: The Hamilton Spectator

Members of the public should contact Brett Simonton at 905-527-6610, ext. 272 or by e-mail at brett@artgalleryofhamilton.com for information and registration.

END

Media contact: Steve Denyes, Communications, Manager, 905-527-6610, ext. 255

E-mail: steve@artgalleryofhamilton.com