Art Gallery of Hamilton open August Civic Holiday weekend

The Art Gallery of Hamilton will be open August Civic Holiday weekend – Saturday, Sunday and Monday, August 5, 6, 7 – from noon to 5 pm daily. In addition to the Gallery's banner exhibitions for which ticketed admission applies, visitors can enjoy a variety of exhibitions free of charge courtesy of Orlick Industries.

Exhibitions with free admission are A Glimpse of the Sublime through 19th-Century Canadian Art, Michel Lambeth: (Re)producing Identity, The Moving Figure: Canadian and European Sculpture, Fellow Artists through the Eyes of Van Gogh, Visions of Nature: European Landscapes from the Collection, Chagall's Lyrical Visions, Tom Bochsler: The Art of Industry and Kim Adams: Bruegel-Bosch Bus.

The August Civic Holiday weekend also coincides with the AGH's ongoing First Friday event -- also sponsored by Orlick Industries -- in which visitors enjoy free admission to the Gallery's banner exhibitions Great Masters Series: Vincent van Gogh and Sublime Embrace: Experiencing Consciousness in Contemporary Art from 5 pm to 9 pm on Friday, August 4th only.

For the remainder of the August Civic Holiday weekend, tickets may be purchased for the AGH's banner exhibitions. Tickets are $12.00 for adults, $10.00 for students and seniors, $5.00 for children aged 6-17 and free for children under the age of 5 years. Tickets may be purchased for a family of 2 adults and up to 4 children for $30.00. AGH Members receive free admission.

The Art Gallery of Hamilton is located at 123 King Street West in downtown Hamilton – 905-527-6610.
