A poignant film about the sweet refusal to change

AGH film screens Breakfast on Pluto

AGH film series is please to present the charming film Breakfast on Pluto on Wednesday, March 22 at 7:10 pm at the Empire Jackson Square 6 Cinemas, 2 King Street West in downtown Hamilton. Tickets are $6.00 for AGH Members, $8.00 for students and seniors and $10.00 for adults. Full ticket and film information is available by calling 905-527-6610, ext. 232 or by visiting www.artgalleryofhamilton.com.

This surreal tale from the Oscar-winning director of The Crying Game follows the life of Patrick Braden - an endearing, deceptively tough young man who suffers through a difficult upbringing with charm and wit, even while enduring the trials and tribulations of moving from his Irish hometown to become a transvestite in 1970s London. Funny, moving and poignant, Breakfast on Pluto is about unwavering faith, the sweet refusal to change, and the inherent goodness in all of us. Nominated for the 2005 Golden Globe for Best Actor in a Motion Picture, Musical or Comedy.

AGHfilm is organized in partnership with the Film Circuit, a division of the Toronto International Film Festival Group. AGHfilm is generously sponsored by Turkstra Lumber. Additional sponsorship is provided by Empire Theatres. The AGH gratefully acknowledges the financial support of the Canada Council for the Arts, the Ontario Arts Council and the City of Hamilton for all our programmes. View Magazine and Wave 94.7 provide media support.
