Art Gallery of Hamilton performance presents
Latin American Contemporary Dance

The Art Gallery of Hamilton performance series is pleased to present a vibrant evening of Latin American Contemporary Dance on Friday, November 14 at 8:00 pm at the AGH, 123 King Street West in downtown Hamilton.

This evening of dance is presented in Association with Settlement Integration Services Organization.

Tickets are $10.00 for AGH Members, $11.00 for Students/Seniors and $12 for Non-Members.

An exciting performance features four original contemporary dance works by Latin American choreographers and dancers from Columbia, Brazil, Mexico and Guatemala. Currently living in Canada, the artists include Norma Araiza, Heryka Miranda, and Olga Barrios. Many of the dancers are involved with socially engaged activities while expressing themselves through dance and the visceral medium of movement and exploration of space. Their original dance works are inspired by family, displacement, joy of life, migration, love, bicultural identity, death, and passion.

Advance tickets can be purchased on-line at www.artgalleryofhamilton.com, at the AGH's Front Desk during Gallery hours or by phone at 905-527-6610, ext. 232.

AGH performance is supported by Canadian Heritage.

The AGH also gratefully acknowledges the support of the City of Hamilton, Canada Council for the Arts and the Ontario Arts Council for all its programmes.
