Announcing the return of Teachers' Night at the Art Gallery of Hamilton

Art Gallery of Hamilton is pleased to announce its popular and informative Teachers' Night returns on Tuesday, May 15th, 2007 from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm.

Designed to introduce new AGH exhibitions, Teachers' Nights will present teachers with an opportunity to experience AGH Tours and Studio activities available to their classes throughout the school year.

At no cost to the teachers, the evening's programme begins with refreshments at a "Meet & Greet" reception with AGH staff and Docents. The guided tours of exhibitions and hands-on Studio activities to follow will ensure an invaluable experience on both a personal and professional level.

Teachers will be treated to a guided tour of Gallery Level Two exhibitions, including Kim Adams' Bruegel-Bosch Bus and Wild Nature: George McLean and Chris Bacon from the Collection of Mr. David Braley. Participants will also preview highlights of the AGH's summer banner exhibition Wit and Whimsy: Folk Art in Canada before its scheduled opening on June 2nd.

While there is no charge for teachers, registration is required to participate in the reception, exhibition tour and activities. Deadline for registration is Friday, May 11, 2007.

To register, please contact the AGH's Educator at 905-527-6610, ext. 272. Note that numbers are limited for the tour and hands-on studio portions of this programme and are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Teachers – take note! The Teachers' Night highlighting the AGH's Fall 2007 exhibition line-up is scheduled for late September.
