

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 16, 2008

In recognition of Earth Day, the AGH film series screens a documentary on our toxic environment

Toxic Trespass

with director Barri Cohen in attendance

The Winter 2008 AGH film series is pleased to present the startling environmental documentary Toxic Trespass on Wednesday, April 23 at 7:00 pm, screening at the Art Gallery of Hamilton, 123 King Street West, downtown Hamilton.

Director Barri Cohen will be in attendance for a post-screening question and answer session.

Tickets are $5.00 for AGH Members, $6.00 for students and seniors and $7.00 for general admission. Tickets may be purchased online in advance at www.artgalleryofhamilton.com, in person at the AGH's Front Desk during Gallery hours or at the venue door the evening of the screening beginning at 6:30 pm.

At birth, babies now may have up to 287 industrial chemicals in their blood. Childhood cancers are on the rise, as are asthma and neurological diseases. Toxic Trespass explores environmental issues and systems from Toronto to Windsor and the greater questions of our industry, government and personal roles in the toxic ecology. Join us for a discussion with the director following the film.
