AGH i / love film series Winter 2016 Schedule

THE BRAND NEW TESTAMENT

Wednesday, February 17 at 7 pm | Screening at Landmark Cinemas 6, Jackson Square

Dir: Jaco Van Dormael, 2015, Belgium, French w/English Subtitles, Comedy, 113 min. Rated 14A

What if God were an angry family man from Brussels who sat at his computer in his dressing gown, dreaming up commandments to amuse himself and annoy everyone else? And what if his daughter, in a fit of childish pique, decided to change the rules and write a brand New Testament? This gloriously imaginative comedy answers all these questions with a series of affectionately funny twists on religion and society.

2016 Golden Globes – Best Foreign Language Motion Picture Nominee | 2016
Academy Awards – Best Foreign Language Film Official Submission, Belgium | 2015
Cannes Film Festival – Official Selection

SYNECDOCHE, NEW YORK

Sunday, February 28 at 4 pm | Screening at Mills Hardware, 95 King Street East

Dir. Charlie Kaufman, 2008, USA, Drama, 124 min. Rated 14A

Charlie Kaufman's 2008 directorial debut is a cryptic, demanding, depressing, confrontational, and self-indulgent masterpiece. Theater director Caden Cotard is mounting a new play. He gathers an ensemble cast into a warehouse in New York City, hoping to create a work of brutal honesty. He directs them in a celebration of the mundane, instructing each to live out their constructed lives in a growing mockup of the city outside.

ANOMALISA

Wednesday, March 9 at 7 pm | Screening at Landmark Cinemas 6, Jackson Square

Dir. Charlie Kaufman, 2015, USA, Drama, 90 min. Rated 18A

Stop-motion animated 2016 Academy Award nominee Anomalisa marks another brilliant and utterly distinctive highlight in Charlie Kaufman's (Being John Malkovich, Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind, Adaptation, Synecdoche, New York) filmography, and a thought-provoking treat for fans of introspective cinema. Michael Stone, husband, father and respected author, is on a business trip to Cincinnati. He is amazed to discover a possible escape from his desperation in the form of an unassuming Akron baked goods sales rep, Lisa, who may or may not be the love of his life.

2016 Academy Awards – Best Animated Feature Nominee | 2016 Golden Globes – Best Animated Feature Nominee | 2015 Toronto International Film Festival – Official Selection

AGH Kid's Club March Break Screening

KIKI'S DELIVERY SERVICE

Sunday, March 13 at 2 pm | Screening at the Art Gallery of Hamilton - Joey and Toby Tanenbaum Pavilion

Dir. Hayao Miyazaki, 1989, Japan, Animation/Adventure/Drama, 102 min. Rated G

From the legendary Hayao Miyazaki, Kiki's Delivery Service is the beloved story of a resourceful young witch who uses her broom to create a delivery service, only to lose her gift of flight in a moment of self-doubt. Rarely has the animator's art been so brilliantly rendered as in this delightfully imaginative film – a beautiful and timeless story of a young girl finding her way in the world.

ALL THE TIME IN THE WORLD

Wednesday, March 23 at 7 pm | Screening at Landmark Cinemas
6, Jackson Square

Dir. Suzanne Crocker, 2014, Canada, Documentary, 80 min.
Rated 14A

Presented in partnership with Bell Media Hot Docs Showcase

Suzanne Crocker and her husband left their jobs and set forth with three children, two cats and one dog to spend nine months living in a small cabin with no road access, no electricity or running water and not a single clock. By living their lives dictated by the passing of the seasons, their family comes together to rediscover themselves within the natural world. Set in the breathtaking wildness of Canada's Yukon Territory and filmed entirely off the grid without an external crew, All the Time in the World crafts an intimate and heartwarming portrait of a family in search of deeper connection.
