September 29, 2016 – The AGH BMO World Film Festival will reveal its 2016 lineup of 39 stellar screenings at this evening's Trailers and Teaser's event at the Art Gallery of Hamilton.

This year's roster includes a diverse range of outstanding films, many of which were official selections at top international film festivals, such as TIFF, Cannes, Sundance, Berlin, London, Tribeca and Hot Docs. Film lovers across the greater Hamilton region will be able to see films and documentaries representing 17 countries and presented in 11 different languages.

"We are especially proud of our 2016 line-up", says Ryan Ferguson, Director, AGH BMO World Festival. "After viewing hundreds of films, our final selection of 39 films not only represents the best from the world's film festivals but highlights nine Canadian features and the work of 12 women directors".

The Art Gallery of Hamilton extends its appreciation to Presenting Sponsor BMO Financial Group for the continued support of the film festival.
