

AGH COLLECTION & CURRICULUM CONNECTIONS (K to 12) – Virtual Mini-Tour and Worksheets

- Talking About Art: Community – We will use observation and critical thinking to discover time and place, and compare this to what we see in our own communities. (language, social studies)
- Art & Math: Shapes, Patterns and Measurement – Looking at an abstract painting by Canadian painter Ron Martin, students will see how important math can be for one artist in his work.
- Art & Society: Social Issues and the Bruegel-Bosch Bus – Using a tour of Kim Adam's well-known work, secondary students will consider the role that art can play in affecting social change.

STORYTIME (K to 3)

This week's feature is Boxitects by Kim Smith. Meg is a brilliant and creative boxitect, she loves building extraordinary things out of ordinary cardboard boxes. This book will inspire all the makers, creators and inventors to become a boxitect too!

STUDIOS WITH TYLER VAN HOLST (K to 8)

- Tyler Makes: Abstract Art – Ideal for a younger audience, explore how to create Abstract Art. Together we will talk about colours and shapes and how we can use them to show how we feel!
- Online workshops: Modular Sculpture – Great for families and older students, try this follow-along art project looking at collecting items and creating modular sculptures.

ONLINE ARTIST LEAD PROJECTS – Bring an Artist into your classroom Online!Sylvia Nickerson: In Residence (K-8)

In the first of a series of weekly videos, Sylvia will introduce herself and share a short look at her current work, as she prepares to begin her year-long project at the AGH.

This week's project highlights:

- Tableaux Charades: (K-6) – Dramatist Jody Boston will encourage students to design, direct and 'perform' several engaging tableaux with their families, props, costumes and even their stuffies!
- Going Graphic (3-8) – Students will compose their own comic strips offering a fun learning opportunity for students to explore the key elements of storytelling and cartooning.

AGH FILM CHALLENGE (Gr. 4 to 12)

The AGH Film Festival's annual Youth Film Challenge is accepting short films from aspiring filmmakers of all ages. Discover how your students can make their own films with only a phone or tablet!
