

Primary Worksheet

1. Looking at art is a great way to practice vocabulary. Take turns pointing out things and describing them. Name people, animals, landscape features, colours and sizes. If you can, write down 8 things you see:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

2. Art is a great way to use critical thinking skills too! Answer these questions by using things in the painting to prove your answer. For example, "Is it winter? No, there is no snow."

What season is this? _____

How do you know? _____

What time of day is this? _____

How do you know? _____

Where are the people standing? _____

How do you know? _____

3. Using what you see in this painting, imagine what happens next. Draw a picture and write the next part of the story here. Get help writing if you need.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. Give your drawing of the rest of the story a new title.

---

Junior / Intermediate Worksheet

1. Art is a great way to use our detective skills to figure out what is happening. Answer these questions, and use an example from the painting to prove it.

Do these people know each other? _____

How do you know? _____

_____

Where is the man going? _____

How do you know? _____

_____

Where is the woman going? _____

How do you know? _____

_____

What are they talking about? _____

How do you know? _____

_____

Where are they? In an urban (city) or rural setting (countryside)? _____

How do you know? _____

_____

2. Does your community look like this? How is it the same or different?

_____

_____

_____

_____

3. Using what you know from the questions above, and what you can see in the painting, tell the story of what happens next. How does this 'meeting' end?

---

---

---

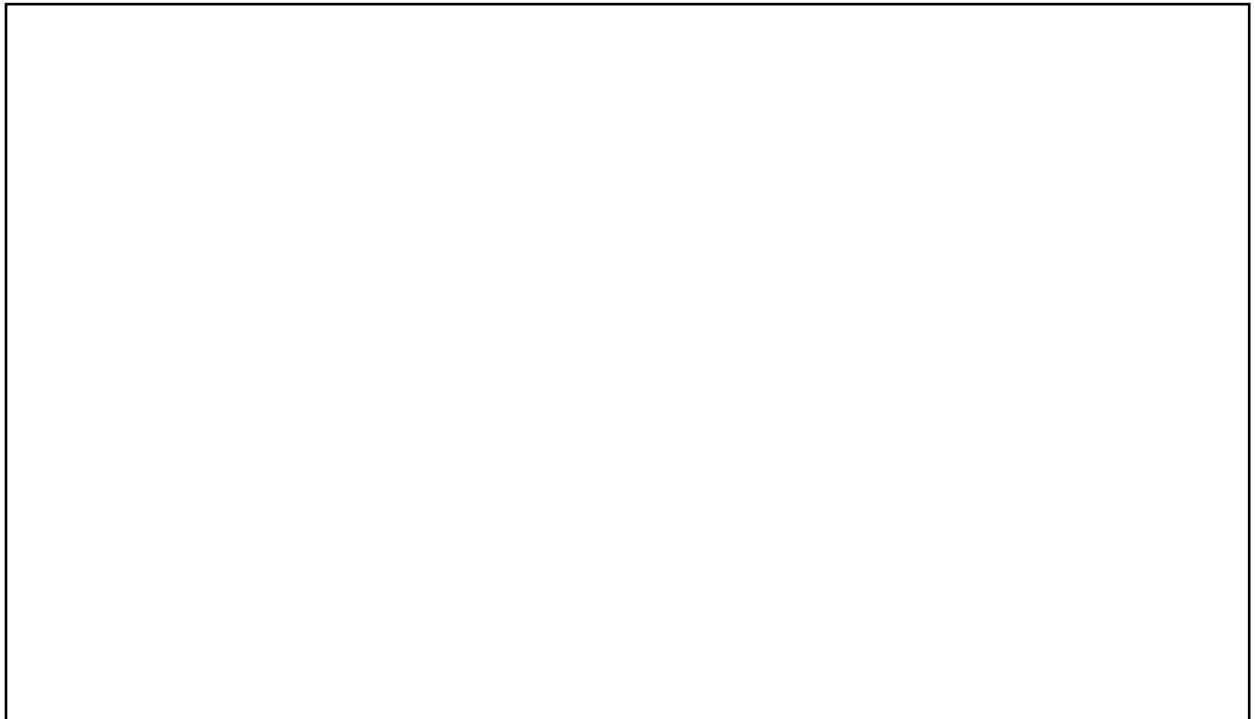

---

---

---

---

4. Draw or take a photo outside your door that shows what your community looks like. What people might you meet there? What people do you miss seeing?

5. A title can tell us more about a picture. Give your photo or drawing a title.

---