

Artful Moments: Shared Learning Project Launch

Event marks the public launch of an online curriculum to support museums in creating programs for people living with dementia.

Artful Moments: Shared Learning is an online curriculum created by the Art Gallery of Hamilton, sponsored by the Public Health Agency of Canada.

Artful Moments is a program created by the Art Gallery of Hamilton that provides meaningful, individualized, and engaging activities using our collections and exhibitions that encourage participants to be creative, to express themselves, and to connect with others through shared experiences.

Members of the Artful Moments team include Laurie Kilgour-Walsh, Janis Humphrey, Maureen Montemuro, Shannon Stanners, Kathy Moros, and Esther Coker. Special guests also include Hugo Gatsby, Met Kennedy, and Veronica Dyer.
