

POSITION: AGH+RBC Educator-In-Residence

SUPERVISOR: Head, Programs and Learning

Situated on the traditional territories of the Erie, Neutral, Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee and Mississaugas, the Art Gallery of Hamilton is one of Canada's longest-running arts organizations and has grown, changed and developed along with the many communities it serves. The Gallery delivers exhibitions accompanied by a range of programs and activities geared to encourage access, promote education, and inspire discussion among increasingly diverse audiences both in the immediate region and beyond. Our current and projected exhibition program foregrounds a diverse representation of art and artists from the region. We encourage global conversations by situating regional practices within broader social, cultural and political discussions.

Funded by RBC, the AGH Educator-in-Residence program provides opportunities for emerging arts practitioners to engage communities of learners in creative activities. Each residency is a six-month project, designed to connect with AGH exhibitions and centered on individualized goals that reflect both the educator's developing practice and the audiences they will engage.

Professional growth opportunities include:

- Training and mentoring in a gallery setting
- Experience in arts-based program design and delivery
- Research related to the exhibition and/or themed focus of the residency

We are seeking a BIPOC artist/educator to serve as our Educator-in-Residence. The selected candidate will work closely with the Programs and Learning department to develop and facilitate tours and hands-on art workshops for all ages, with a particular emphasis on school programs. Research and activities will focus on the exhibition Camille Turner: Hometown Queen.

The AGH is committed to fostering a respectful, collaborative environment that supports decolonizing practices, and a multi-faceted approach to teaching and knowledge-sharing within the gallery.

We are looking for an emerging BIPOC artist/educator who is passionate about teaching and enjoys working with children and youth. A strong interest in developing tours and activities tailored to different age groups, and in connecting art-making to exhibitions or cultural themes, is central to this residency. Experience working with the Ontario Curriculum is considered an asset.

The residency runs from June to December (six months) and requires availability during school hours, with occasional weekend or evening programs. The schedule is flexible, with an expected commitment of approximately 20 to 28 hours per week, at a rate of $35.00 per hour.
